FRANKLIN AVENUE COMMUNITY SAFETY CENTER A COLLABORATIVE EVENT

POLICE & COMMUNITY WORKING TOGETHER

*****

The Franklin Avenue Community Safety Center brings the Phillips community and police together to share information.

Through collaboration, neighbors and police act to prevent and reduce crime, and look at livability issues in the Phillips neighborhood.

FRANKLIN AVENUE COMMUNITY SAFETY CENTER

FRANKLIN AVENUE

The Franklin Avenue Community Safety Center looks to the Phillips neighborhood for input. The results? Community-oriented policing projects, which include:

Neighborhood crime sweeps:

Officers on horseback and bicylces, in cars and on foot patrol the neighborhood, sending a visual - and arresting - message to criminals.

Horse Patrol:

Visible policing brings officers directly into the community they serve.

Community meetings with judges:

In drug-related cases, neighbors tell those in the judicals system how drug crimes creat a devastating effect on the community.

Court Watch:

This program works to reduce crime in Phillips by increasing the sentences given to offenders repeatedly convicted of drug crimes.

Upcoming:

Training and workshops. Community members learn how to formally report crime and follow through in the court system.

Business Block Club:

All Phillips-area business learn how to identify, report and reduce criminal activities.
